HOSIERY SALVAGE PROGRAM ENDS SEPT. 30

Mrs. J. E. Pittman, Home Salvage chairman of Coffee County, announces that on Sept. 30 the nationwide Hosiery Collection Program, which has been in effect since November 16, 1942, will terminate. Headquarters announce that the closing date has been announced because the proportion of silk and nylon being returned is on a declining scale.

Mrs. Pittman urges all women who still have old nylon or silk hose that should be salvaged to carry them to schools or to dry goods stores before Sept. 30.

The response of Alabama women has been magnificent and well beyond expectations. Mrs. Pittman joins with the War Production Board in expressing appreciation for the cooperation received in making this essential voluntary contribution to the war effort. Alabama women contributed the amazing total of 11,640 pounds of silk and nylon hosiery since the beginning of the campaign up until August 14, 1943, or approximately 232,800 pairs of hose.

Improved SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

ABIDING VALUES FROM ISRAEL'S HISTORY
LESSON TEXT--Deuteronomy 11:18-23.
GOLDEN TEXT--Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people.—Proverbs 14:34.

What makes a nation great? God's dealings with Israel answer that question. The history which we have briefly touched upon in our study of the first four books of the Bible is reviewed in Deuteronomy.

Moses, realizing that the end was at hand for him and that a new generation was about to go into the promised land, reviewed the history of the people, restated their laws, and renewed the appeal of God for their loyal obedience. This record is found in the Book of Deuteronomy, from which our lesson is taken. We find here that the nation which is truly great—

1. Worship the True God (vv. 13-15).
There is a fundamental factor which underlies all real national greatness—love of God. This has an inseparable corollary—serving Him "with all your heart, and all your soul."

Says the wise man of Proverbs (28:24), "Righteousness exalts a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people." We have well-nigh forgotten that fact. We need to be reminded of it again in God's word to Israel.

What is the result? The blessing of God upon the land, the giving of abundant harvest, in fact, the opening of the way to a bright future.

II. Heeds God's Warning (vv. 16, 17).
This is the negative side. God dealt with Israel through promises if they were faithful, and the threat of judgment if they forgot Him.

One is as important as the other in the leading of a nation—and in the rearing of children. We like our heavenly Father, should faithfully keep every promise; but every promise should be kept with every warning of judgment.

America has seen the handwriting of God in warning concerning its waywardness and sin. Will it heed and avoid further judgment?

III. Honors God's Word (vv. 18, 19).
Loving God and His Word is not a matter for theological speculation or for sectarianism. It is a matter of the heart. The Christian faith is at its best in the ordinary affairs of life. It is the proper place in the tender relationship of parent and child. Its teaching is pure, abiding, and true, and entirely appropriate to any occasion, whether one sits or rises, walks or lies down. God's words are the words to be laid up in the heart and in the soul, to be taught to our children, to be the constant and noble subject of conversation.

IV. Testifies for God (vv. 20, 21).
Here again we have the home before us. And it is, of course, the home which makes the nation. If the home is true, the nation will be true. We do so, inevitably and effectively.

We may not, as did the pious Jew, make a little altar bearing the name of our deities, but we may make the home itself an altar, and let the home itself be a testimony for God before our neighbors.

It is obvious that the home either speaks for or against God. A profession of faith in Him, an outward testimony to His name, is not a mere formality, but a vital testimony to the principles which do not vitally touch our dealings with one another and with the community in which we live—these clearly testify not for God but against Him. On the other hand, who can estimate the value of a sweet and orderly Christian home? Whether it be on a dusty city street, or on a quiet country lane, it is a light that cannot be hid.

V. Counts on God for Victory (vv. 22-25).
God promised that if Israel diligently kept His commandments, loved Him and walked in His ways, they would be a nation that would overcome and possess their enemies, and prosper in every good purpose.

God desires the nation which honors His name to stand before the other nations of the earth victorious and prosperous.

The purpose of the Lord for Israel was a far greater one than they ever achieved, because they fell into sin and drew back in unbelief. The limits of the land which He proposed to give them, as stated in verse 24, far exceed the land which they possessed in Palestine.

God's plans are large plans. His promises are large promises. His promises to us, like those to Israel, are stupendous. We need to learn to take Him at His word.

"No man shall be able to stand before you" (v. 25) was the promise to Israel. "Ask what ye will" (John 15:7) is the promise to us. They failed because they did not believe God. Will we fail for the same reason?

JOHNSON TOWN FAMILY REUNION, SUN, SEPT. 12

On Sunday, Sept. 12, quite a number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Arkey Johnson to spend and enjoy the day together. Some of our boys were home for a few days on a furlough and other members were just visiting, so we all decided to meet at one place and enjoy the day together.

We really enjoyed the day, too, for it had been more than a year since some of us had seen each other. The morning part of the day was spent exchanging greetings, as they did not all arrive until near the noon hour. After they all arrived a long table was placed out in the yard where we had prepared for a bounteous dinner.

The afternoon was spent in talking and singing. Several members of our family who are in the Armed Forces, some overseas, were present, but we thought of them and plan to have a real "home-coming" when this cruel war is over and they all come home again, which we hope and pray will not be very much longer. Late in the afternoon as each one departed they expressed themselves as having spent a most enjoyable day.

Those present were: Mrs. Esther Johnson and children, Morris and Lela; Mrs. Rhetter Johnson and sons, Ray and Orville; Mrs. Arkey Johnson and children, Ralph and Johnnie Lee; Mrs. Tura Goodson and daughter, Mary Emma; Mrs. Myrtle Lee Jackson and little daughter.

Our visitors were: Lieut. and Mrs. Chas. Harrison, of Salina, Kansas; Mrs. J. E. Reeves, of Camp Breckenridge, Ky.; Mrs. Alvin Cook and son, Charles, of Opp; Miss Vonelle Johnson, of Dothan; Mrs. E. H. Atkins and Miss Gail Sessy Johnson, of Auburn; Mrs. Maxwell Reeves, of Camp Gruber, Okla.; Mrs. Pearl Cook and son, Doyle, of Baker, Fla.; First Class Radioman Verdis O. Cook, of New York City; Cpl. Raymond C. Clark, of San Diego, Calif.—Contrib.

DANIEL BRYAN WRITES FROM OV-SEAS HOSPITAL

Daniel Bryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bryan, of Pine Level community who was recently wounded in action overseas, writes a very cheerful letter from an overseas hospital saying that he is getting along fine. The letter was to his aunt, Mrs. Duke Taylor, and we print it for the benefit of his friends.

Dear Aunt Mitt:
 Sure hope this finds you feeling good and I guess enjoying yourself. The young folks can't enjoy themselves too much, but as long as everybody is well you don't have anything to worry about.

I had a little bad luck—stopped a bullet, or rather it stopped me. Isn't too bad though; went through my shoulder, but I am doing fine now, just a little weak and sore. The doctor says I will be good as new again. I guess Mama will worry herself to death now. I write her most every day and tell her I am o. k. and not to worry, but I know she will if you happen to see any of my folks, tell them you had a letter from me and that I am o. k. Maybe that will help some.

Here where I am in the hospital, we have most everything, fresh fruit and pineapples. The natives grow them here on this island. Up until now we did not have very much of a long way from the fighting now. If I get along well I guess I will be back with the boys before long.

I guess it's about winter back home now. Sure wish I could see some cold weather here, supposed to be hot. There is no news here, quite a bit we could write if they would let us. I can tell you one place I have been. When we sailed from San Francisco, we landed in New Zealand. Some of the nicest people in the world live there. The best part of it was, they speak English. Most all the other places we went there wasn't anything there but natives. They sound to me about like frogs around a pond. Be as easy for me to understand a frog as it would a native.

Answer real soon, Love, Daniel Bryan, 18th Gen. Hospital, APO 919, Care Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.

CLUB WOMEN STUDIED SAFETY AND HEALTH

Safety and Health was the subject of study in Coffee County's women's clubs during the month of September. Our county shared in the 30,000 fatal accidents and 4,500,000 non-fatal injuries occurring in the United States last year, stated Miss Mamie B. Mathews, home agent, who planned the campaign of safety against accidents that occur in the home.

The fact that good lights are one of the essentials for safety in the home was stressed at these meetings. Falls cause more than fifty per cent of the accidents and often could have been prevented by adequate light. Twenty-five per cent of the falls occur on steps and stairs. All steps should be of the same height, the floor under the last step should be marked with a coat of light or white paint if the place is dimly lighted.

Not many farm homes of this section are more than one story, but stairs furnish many hazards for the very young and the old. Care should be taken that stairs are in perfect condition at all times, with a landing half way up to break the flight wherever possible, and they should be clear of such objects as brooms and mops or anything that might trip someone, perhaps causing a serious injury or even death.

Many accidents occur on porch steps, or those leading from the house, as well as stairs. The September lessons reminded these folks of broken porch step or rail may be a danger spot. The homeowners were urged to keep their steps, or other places where injury might occur, constantly checked and repaired.

Clean window shades with wallpaper cleaner. Lay the shades flat, start at the top and clean downward in one direction.

Recalling Christ as the fulfillment of the law should prepare one to manifest obedience to every moral precept through His grace.

II. More Than the Law (Matt. 5:19-20).
 Obedience to the commandments brings a man up to the very entrance upon life, but to enter in, he must have more than the "letter of the law," he must have the Person who is "the Door" to eternal life.

The young man who came to Christ was rich. His mind was obsessed with things. He had made his business to observe the law, and had done well (v. 20), but his soul was not satisfied. He thought more "things" to do would accomplish his purpose.

The general attitude of the man was commendable. He sensed his lack of the vital something which would remake his life. He came to the right one—the Lord Jesus—with his question.

His failure to go beyond the things of the law to a faith in Christ, however, showed that he loved his possessions more than he desired to follow the Lord.

Those in our day who are trying to please God and gain eternal blessedness by works, by doing things and keeping commandments, need to recognize that in Christianity we have the One who is more than the law. They need to look away from things to be done, to the great thing that was done once and for all on Calvary.

III. Greater Than the Law (John 5:39, 40).
 The Scriptures are great because they bear witness to the Christ who can give life. But obviously the One to whom they bear witness is greater than they are.

Paul speaks of the law as a "schoolmaster to bring us to Christ" (Gal. 3:24). The picture is literally of a servant charged with bringing the child to school where he may be taught the truth. So the law convicts man of sin, makes him conscious of his own utter inability to meet God's requirements, and makes him ready to turn to Christ in faith and repentance (Rom. 3:20).

These men of our Lord's time were very religious. They spent much of their time searching the Scriptures that they might find eternal life. But most of them failed to understand that the life they sought was in the One who stood before them—Jesus of Nazareth—and not in the letter of the law.

This has a vital bearing on the proper study of the lessons of this quarter. "The time has passed when men might seek life in the Scriptures apart from Jesus. Now that Jesus has come, life can be found only in the Scriptures lead one to Jesus."

"If our study of the Scriptures does not bring us to Christ, then it is vain indeed. For that reason we cannot study the Ten Commandments without turning constantly to Jesus as the One greater than the law" (Lesson Commentary).

DON'T WASTE ELECTRICITY

An extra troop train or freight train loaded with tanks, guns, ammunition, and other war goods may mean the winning of a battle. Each carload of fuel saved helps make this possible.

There is plenty of electric power for all war and essential civilian needs, but elimination of non-essential uses of indoor and outdoor lighting can help save fuel and transportation.

AN APPEAL IS MADE FOR ANTIOCH CHURCH

Antioch, a Primitive Baptist church in Coffee County, was organized in 1868, and has served as a place of worship and community gatherings for 75 years. Many who have entered its portals have passed into another life. Its influence and power have had a definite part in the history and life of Coffee, Crenshaw and Pike Counties. In the large cemetery nearby rest the bodies of pioneer citizens of the three counties.

The old church is a landmark of the state, and represents much historical interest. The building is now in a very dilapidated state and must be replaced with a new one. The membership is small, with only two male members. They are unable to rebuild without help. An appeal is made to the patriotic people throughout this section, regardless of faith or creed, to come to the rescue of an institution that is linked with the life and traditions of this part of the state.

Contributions may be made through M. L. Beck, Glenwood; J. M. Leverett, Deacon, Rt. 1, Glenwood; or Elder J. J. Richards, Rt. 1, Dozier.

OATS

Just received several hundred bushels of Seed Oats

Test shows 99.94 per cent Purity with no Noxious Weed seed for our fine Victorgrain Oats. State man reported this one of best lots of oats yet tested in Alabama this year.

There are some mixed oats on the market which contain from 7 to 8 per cent weed seed and other inert material including such seeds as Johnson Grass, Dodder, Cheat, Darnel & Dock which are noxious weeds that most farmers do not want. So watch your oat tag. When you find cheap oats—there is usually a good reason.

These same oats would cost us more today than we are selling them for.

Get your needs while our supply of these GOOD OATS lasts.

WINTER PEAS AND BLUE LUPINE

We also have a good supply of Austrian Winter Peas and Blue Lupine which are being sold for the AAA.

RYE

We also have a good supply of Abruzzi Rye seed bought which should arrive this week.

SEED TREATING INFORMATION

Be sure and treat your oats before planting. Supply of Improved Ceresan on hand for treating.

COTTON SEED TREATING—Some test run in Mississippi showed that cotton seed treated with Ceresan in the Fall gave a 7 per cent higher yield than spring-treated seed. Also helps to kill rats around the barn.

Will have in a supply of Ceresan in a few days. Why not treat your cotton seed this Fall and get the benefit of these results?

BABY CHICKS

Still behind with orders, but have shipment of chicks in each week which we are not booking. First come, first served.

Hope to have sufficient flocks bloodtested within two or three weeks to where we can run full capacity.

BLUE CASE JURY FAILS TO AGREE

Bessemer, Sept. 24.—Date for a new trial for Dr. J. Howard Blue, Bessemer physician, charged with the death of his wife, Mrs. Laura Ball Blue, was set for November 1 after a mistrial was declared Friday following 50 hours' deliberation by the jury.

Circuit Judge Gardner F. Goodwyn, in whose court the case was tried, called the jury into the courtroom at noon Friday to ask if jury members were any nearer reaching an agreement.

After questioning each member of the jury, Judge Goodwyn said he was averse to declaring a mistrial unless they had exhausted every means of reaching a verdict. He was told by jury members that two decided opinions had been reached and it seemed hopeless that either group would change its views.

Judge Goodwyn then declared the case a mistrial, pointing out that the jury had spent 50 hours in deliberation. The jury had been out since 10 a. m. Wednesday.

Mrs. Blue was wounded fatally at about 10 o'clock the night of last May 23 at the Blue home, 2031 Dartmouth Avenue, by the blast of a shotgun.

Dr. Blue went on trial in the Bessemer Division of Circuit Court Sept. 13, and the jury took the case after eight days of testimony.

Mrs. Frances Hatfield joined her son, Hurley, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Christian Hinson, in Mobile the past week-end. Snooks Green was with Hurley and sends a "Hello" to his folks.

Mrs. W. W. Sanders, who has been visiting relatives in Lakeland, Fla., for several weeks, returned to her home Sunday.

Mrs. J. E. Morgan and son, Thad, of Enterprise, are guests of her mother, Mrs. Corrie Bryant, and family. Friends will be glad to know that she is much improved after a recent major operation at Enterprise.

ALBRITTON URGES SOIL COVER CROPS

Seeding winter cover crops to provide winter and early spring grazing and seed patches is being recommended by J. T. Albritton, Soil Conservationist of the Wiregrass Soil Conservation District, as a means of getting all-out production from the land.

Land handling in this manner actually performs a double duty in the war of fort. It is in continuous and safe year-round use, producing war crops during the summer and feeding livestock during the off-season months for added production of meat and dairy products.

The conservationist points out that there is a large acreage of land in Coffee County which ordinarily remains bare and idle until spring which could be utilized. Both legume and non-legume crops can be planted on this land with good results, he declared.

Of the non-legumes, oats, rye, ryegrass and barley are perhaps the most common. Among the legumes are blue lupine, Austrian winter peas, hairy vetch and crimson clover.

In addition to providing a winter source of green feed, these crops can be of tremendous value in increasing soil fertility. They protect the soil against erosion during the winter months and improve the soil's fertility by restoring nutrients which have been sapped by the preceding summer crops.

COTTON GINNING REPORT SHOWS GAIN

Census report shows that 8,040 bales of cotton were ginned in Coffee County from the crop of 1943 prior to Sept. 16, 1943, as compared with 6,244 bales for the crop of 1942.

WRITES FROM SICILY

Last week The Clipper received a letter from Pvt. W. C. Chancellor, somewhere in Sicily, in which he says: "This is not the news or a speech, just a few words for the fighting 17th P. A. Its name is only known at the front to give the Jerries another punch. I am glad to say that we have and can take it. We are not like some of those hard working cream puffs who sit down and kill time while the boss is away, just for another dollar, and then go home. We all would gladly go home in peace and happiness without all that killing. I want the paper, please send it to me."

(If Pvt. Chancellor's folks want him to have the paper, we will mail it to him on receipt of the subscription price, $1.50 per year.—Editor Clipper.)
